

BBC Report Fabricated by Amanuel Eyasu & Assena.com

By Zerai Solomon

I was listening to the BBC program “Focus on Africa ” when I heard someone speaking in broken English. I decided to listen again and was shocked that the BBC could knowingly report a fabricated story taken from a website run by Amanuel Eyasu, Martin Plaut’s informant and errand boy.

Amanuel Eyasu, who came to the UK on Eritrean Government scholarship. Once he finished his schooling he decided to abandon his country and people to work as an informant for Martin Plaut. This weekend, Amanuel Eyasu, on orders from his masters, decided to fabricate a report about an “assassination attempt” in Eritrea . It did not take long to see who ordered him to do that. His barking masters were not too far behind. Associated with human traffickers in London , he managed to smuggle his family out of Eritrea , through Sudan . Today he is being closely monitored as he may have violated terms of his asylum as well as other British laws. Sources tell this author that Amanuel Eyasu was hired to spy on Eritrean communities.

The report, which the BBC was not able to independently verify, was a desperate fabrication by a the dictatorial regime in Addis and hired guns like Martin Plaut and Tesfaldet Meharena . Everyone knows that wedi Meharena was in Ethiopia to discuss future plans with Meles Zenawi. One by one the fools have been exposed. After the failure of their garbage for the last 10 years, they have no choice but to go back to their masters for more blood money. The message Tesfaldet received from Meles is the same as it always was. Demonize the proud jigna tegadalay and President of Eritrea, the honorable Isaias Afwerki. The more they attack him, the more respect he gets from us. This modern day wedogeba is a disgrace to his family and community.

Tesfaldet Meharena who lives in America should know about assassinations, the work of weak and deranged individuals usually paid by the CIA. During the election campaigns, Barack Obama, the President of America, was the target of white supremacy hate groups in America who plotted to assassinate him. The assassination of President John Kennedy, America ’s most beloved leader, is a good example of what desperate and cheap mercenaries can do. There are many more examples of hired mercenaries doing the dirty jobs for governments in the west. Patrice Lumumba, the first leader of Congo was murdered by one of his own kinsmen, a CIA mercenary. Ethiopian leaders played a role in the assassination of Patrice Lumumba and provided the “peacekeeping forces” that prevented him from getting help. In 2001 Bereket Habteselassie and Tesfaldet Meharena also plotted to assassinate the President of Eritrea. Mercenaries like Tesfaldet Meharena and Amanuel Eyasu will do anything for money and attention.

Londoners know Amanuel Eyasu as the schizophrenic wimp who was kicking and screaming as he was thrown out of a community meeting last year. Shocked and embarrassed, the fool kept screaming and crying like a baby when he was dumped him on the streets like trash. Ammanuel is mentally anguished as he is a son of a “wedogeba”, someone who surrendered to Ethiopian forces during the Eritrean war for independence. Protected by the Eritrean Peoples Liberation Front (EPLF), Amanuel was given opportunities that he could never imagine if it had not been for the EPLF and yet this ungrateful village idiot wants to bite the hands of those who fed him. Soon he will end up in the rubbish bin where he belongs when Martin Plaut has finished using him.

London Eritreans know this is not the first fabrication that is posted on his website. One time, this disturbed individual wrote about some Eritrean government officials and said that they were sanctioned and not allowed to travel. Who sanctioned them? He never said. He believes the UK can do anything they want and not have to follow international law. Just because they committed illegal acts to bring his family to the UK, does not mean that they can freely commit crimes openly. In another report that shows how weak and sick he is, he wrote about an Eritrean woman, Senait Debessay, and said that she was dead. He let people sign condolences and mourn for her even though he knew that it was not true. His wife and children must be embarrassed for the disgraceful life he has chosen for them.

The Eritrean community has carefully documented all of his activities and included a list of fabricated news items as evidence. For example, in one of his reports he posted a picture of a bank deposit slip, a cheap forgery, to implicate the President of Eritrea in some fabricated financial scandal. That childish scheme not only exposed his stupidity and immaturity, but will also result in criminal charges when the bank in question finalizes its own investigations into the matter. Eritrean youth, who were quick to respond to his forgery, used Photoshop to create a bank deposit slip similar to the one that he posted on his website to show him that he was nothing but a cheap amateur. This imbecile should know that the people of Eritrea will hold him accountable for all the rubbish that he has been posting on his site.

Tesfaldet Meharena and Amanue Eyasu always write about the Eritrean Defense Forces. They have called them stupid names like “slaves” and tried to ridicule the work that they are doing in Eritrea. There will never be anything comparable to EDF anywhere in Africa. They respect the people of Eritrea and their government, they are not hooligans, and they are men and women with a lot of class, not village sell outs. If anyone needs to worry, it will be Amanuel Eyasu and Tesfaldet Meharena, wedogebas and lying Woyane stooges, trash paid agents of Martin Plaut.

Amanuel Eyasu and Tesfaldet Meharena have proved that they have no principles and will use anything to get attention. Everyone knows that the latest fabricated news came from Meles Zenawi and his henchmen. A similar news item was used by the regime a few years back. This particular story was to be personally handled by the bankrupt and corrupt Tesfaldet Meharena, who recently visited his masters in Ethiopia to get his instructions and pay for his criminal activities. Trying to copy the work of Elias Kifle and Silashi Tilahun who interviewed President Isaias Afwerki, Tesfaldet Meharena decided to “interview” Meles Chenawi. It is a bad copy. Elias and Silashi are loved and respected by their people and can represent the majority of Ethiopians.

This wedogeba does not represent anyone except himself. He is a cheap imitation.

When Amanuel Eyasu produced the fabricated forgery, his gangs used the same system to spread their lies. Selam Kidane, another confused hired hand who claims to be religious tried to spread the lies saying that Eritreans were talking about the issue. How stupid, the people were talking about the forgery, nothing else. She did not even bother to check the facts before she started to “spin” the story on Asmarino.com. What can you expect from a dummy who is ruled by her Woyane husband. Today, Tesfaldet meharena used another confused individual by the name of Michael Abraha to “spin” the fabricated “assassination attempt”. That is how they do their job.

Like Woyane, these people suffer from lowliness and inner shame, have serious family problems and come from broken homes. For example, Amanuel Eyasu has been known to abuse a woman by the name of Feven Solomon. Two things have bothered Feven Solomon all her life. The first is that she was an illegitimate child; the second was that her mother was an Ethiopian woman from the Tigray region in Ethiopia . This confused woman has been without work for sometimes now and was just drifting in life when Amanuel Eyasu decided to hire her and use her in his radio programs. One of my friends that know her from Rotterdam told me that she used her own sister’s children on her radio program, to read a list of people who were supposed to be dead. How cruel can she be to abuse children to get attention? Intay mo, she cannot care or know about children; she does not have any of her own.

Eritreans in London have filed formal complaints against the news outlet citing erroneous, irresponsible reporting and continued furtive racism against the Eritrean Community in the United Kingdom . Martin Plaut, abusing his position at the BBC together with his hired mercenary Amanuel Eyasu, owner of the Assena website, has been producing fictional rubbish about Eritrea and its leadership for quite sometime now and the Eritrean Community decided to lodge a formal complaint to officials. The complaints list a number of purposefully fabricated articles and call on the BBC to apologize to its listeners for the bogus stories.

These individuals are failures in their family lives and have no self esteem and believe they are important because they got some attention from white people like Martin Plaut.

Serving as mercenaries for the Woyane regime is about as low as anyone can get today and Amanuel Eyasu has done just that. I will never listen to the BBC again and call on all Eritreans to boycott the BBC and all its programs.
