

Hooligans Trying to Disturb the Peace

Today 24th of January in the early hours of this morning, a 16-man mob, led by ring leaders, Emanuel Eyasu, Selam Kidane & Bereket Kahsay, stormed into the Eritrean Embassy office. Like every society, Eritrean society is not immune from hooligans organised by known Anti-Eritrean elements doing such a blatant criminal deeds. Most of these 16 membered mob looks more confused with little or no Eritrean value whatsoever. Some are jobless while others are criminals known by the police in this country itself. Two of them are already confirmed to be of Tigrayan origin. Unlike other embassies with high-tech securities, Eritrean Embassy has always been known to be relatively open to the public and these traitors exploited this opportunity to push their way through the door to deliberately enter just to cause havoc and mayhem.

The two evil RATS

It's now an open secret that such enemies of Eritrea have been undergoing a series of meetings organized by the Weyane in many towns and villages in Ethiopia. They have been touring Ethiopia beginning in Mekele, then Gondar, Addis Ababa, Awassa, DebreZeit and recently in Nazareth. Ethiopian public enemy No-1, Mebrahtom Gebrehiwet (AKA in his nom de plumme, Bereket Simon) has been coordinating and organizing their meetings in Ethiopia. It is obvious that they had been instructed to cause disruption in the Eritrean community of their respective residence in Europe and the USA.

This can only be one of the many criminal activities that they are instructed to perform. It's also a well-known fact that Eritrea's enemies are nothing but frustrated groups, swayed by the global special interest groups, themselves using opportunistic individuals with narrow sub-national sentiments, hell bent on enslaving the people

These opportunistic hooligans will no doubt answer for their crime, one way or another. Pretending that they are concerned about the politics of Eritrea, they forgot the very meaning of politics in the Eritrean society which is well articulated and practised in our culture.

“Politics is the Art of Association”, not the art of distraction and havoc that we see being practiced by the enemies of Eritrea. Whatever their motive is, they should have known that by creating havoc and making it viral over the web only destroys their reputation.

These hooligans who entered the Eritrean Embassy in London should have waited for a bit longer because by the time the YFPDJ members got there what we found was that they abandoned they place quickly after taking a little video which they think that will sway.

Eritrean masses but of course they already lost their Eritreanism and forgot that the people will not be dogged by a little video clip that will be posted in Asmarino.com and Assena.com the two regionalist and ethnic.

If we look close to the video of these Riffraffs, they were so erratic in their behaviours.

Unlike a handful of these mobsters, Eritreans are more civilized and cultured and because of dramas here and there, nothing can sway us from our independent thought. The frustration of these hooligans can easily be predicted after seeing their hoax coup d'état evaporating in thin air.

These hooligans and it will be clear exactly what has transpired on Monday to all Eritreans who care about Eritrea. The real bonus of this week is the reassuring feeling of confirmation what you already know.

They cannot get away with extending the havoc to Eritrea. The fact of the matter is that Eritrean people inside or outside would never allow these puppets whip hysteria in order to create chaotic environment to hand in on a platter to the western intervention. Because their tools couldn't work on Eritrea and with no prospect of ever working in a million years, they chose to cover up their frustration by calling all sorts of names, Isolated, opaque, closed, hermit etc.etc. Eritrea will leave them bark indefinitely and won't be interested in joining them & barking back at them
