

PFDJ MEMBERS HOLD A SUCCESSFUL MEETING IN PHOENIX, ARIZONA:

On Saturday, June 29, 2013 PFDJ members from the host city, Phoenix (Arizona), Las Vegas (Nevada), San Bernardino, San Diego, Orange and Los Angeles counties of California held a meeting at which reports on various activities being undertaken by the respective groups were given and extensive discussion about the future plans of action was conducted. These members, who have been discharging their duties diligently, renewed their pledge to exert more energy and efforts in advancing Eritrean national development programs and interests while at the same time thwarting the anti-Eritrea campaigns. The next semi-annual conference will take place in San Diego.
