Brief Life Story
Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes Woldemichael

Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes Woldemichael was born on September 27, 1935, in Segeneiti, Eritrea, to his late parents Colonel Yohannes Woldemichael and Weizero Wagaye Berhe. After completing his elementary education in Segeneiti, he was among the first batch of Eritrean students allowed to go beyond the 4th grade, which was the limit imposed by Italian Colonialism. He attended Biet-Gergish in Asmera and completed middle school there. He then completed teachers training and started working as a teacher in both Asmera and Segeneiti.

In May 1955, Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes got married to his wonderful wife Weizero Tsigheroman Tesfazion Derres.

After working for 6 years as a teacher, Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes joined Ethiopian Airlines in 1956 and worked in Addis-Ababa (Ethiopia) in various capacities, and as District Manager in Dar es Salaam (Tanzania), and Accra (Ghana). In September 1977, Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes moved to the United States of America with his family and worked for Pan American and Delta Airlines until his retirement in 2008. While working fulltime and supporting his family, Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes earned an Advanced Business Administration Professional Certificate with Distinction from Montgomery College in the State of Maryland.

After a brief illness, Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes passed away peacefully on September 30, 2013, surrounded by his family and friends.

Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes was a man with a giant heart who touched many lives. In his family and friends, he was known as a kind and loving person. His loss is deeply felt by his family, friends and the Eritrean community in the Washington D.C metro area.

Mr. Tesfamariam Yohannes is survived by his wife Weizero Tsigheroman Tesfazion, his 5 children Delilah, Sophia, Hellen, Daniel, and Wagaye, 5 grandchildren Phenan, Joseph, Noah, Naomi and Alex, and those to whom he was ‘Grand Pa’, Bruh, Merih, Loubnah, Meron, Zerhai, Iyobel, Isabelle and Eliana.

May the Lord our God Almighty accept him in heaven. Amen.
