

President receives credentials of 14 Ambassadors

Dr. Andreas Zimmer of Germany

Mr. Christian Manahl of the European Union

Mr. Stefano Pontesilli
of Italy

Mr. Paul Malok of South Sudan

Mr. David Ward of UK

Mr. Mohammed R.H.
Dukali of Libya

Asmara, 09 October
2014 – President Isaias

Afwerki today received the credentials of 14
Ambassadors.

The Ambassadors are Mr. David Ward of UK, Mr. Stefano Pontesilli of Italy, Dr. Andreas Zimmer of Germany, Mr. Christian Manahl of the European Union, Mr. Mohammed R.H. Dukali of Libya, Mr. Paul Malok of South Sudan, Mr. Fabio Massimo Cantarelli of Malta, Mr. Shabib Jovaijari of Iran, Mr. Rafiuzzaman Siddiqui of Pakistan, Mr. Juan Gonzalez Barba of Spain, Mr. Ivan Zivikovik of Serbia, Mr. Dominique Rossetti of Canada, Mr. Morten Von Hanno Aasland of Norway and Dr. Batilda Salha Buriani of Tanzania.

Following talks with the Ambassador regarding Eritrea's achievements in the development and diplomatic fields, as well as relations of partnership with the respective countries, the President wished them successful tour of duty.

During the ceremony at Denden Hall in Asmara, the Ambassadors expressed the readiness of their respective nations to develop mutual co-operation with Eritrea on the basis of partnership, including that of trade and investment domains, political and diplomatic activities and the like.