Eritrean Americans in San Jose and environs gathered on May 21, 2015, to honor the Flag Raising Event held at City Hall, in consideration of the 24th Anniversary of Eritrean Independence. This event happened in coordination of Eritrean Community Cultural & Development Ctr with City Councilmember, Mr Raul Peralez.

The event started in welcoming invited guests and Eritreans of San Jose and environs, by the Community Center's Chairman, Fitsum Keflezighi, followed by a minute of silence, in honor of our fallen Eritrean martyrs.

Mr Raul Peralez made an honorable speech in sharing what he knew about Eritrea while welcoming Eritrean Americans to be part of the city's diverse communities. He also presented us this year's proclamation which was signed by Mayor Sam Liccardo.

Mr Elias Amare, representing Eritrean Americans briefly shared Eritrea's history and progress meticulously.

To a surprise of all, a 9 years old youth, Dina Berhan also shared a meaningful poem that represented Eritrean flag, in Tigrigna. The event ended with some cultural music and dance, related to our independence.

Eternal Glory to our Martyrs!
Wetru Awet n'Hafash!
