

King County

Metropolitan King County Council

RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, King County is home to many Eritreans who continue to contribute to the economic, social, and cultural diversity of this region; and

WHEREAS, Eritrea declared its independence on May 24, 1991; and

WHEREAS, Eritreans all over the world will celebrate the 24th anniversary of this historic event this year; and

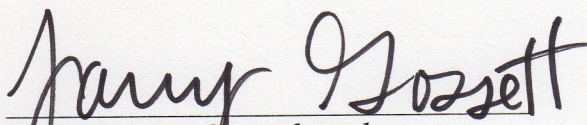

WHEREAS, the Eritrean community in King County will celebrate by commemorating the 30-year struggle for independence and celebrate their culture with their children and families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Larry Gossett, on behalf of the Metropolitan King County Council, proclaim May 24, 2015, as in Martin Luther King, Jr. County and call upon residents to join in this celebration.

ERITREAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

DATED this twenty-fourth day of May, 2015.

Larry Gossett, Councilmember,
District Two
