JEROME GÖYTÖM

1941-2016

1941-2016

ct with stant ve nallenges d trust his

the world: concerned. ing and ed by all those friended and ellyfh.ca.

orld.

Jerome Goytom, (1941-2016) endid human being, mentor of a young person and a good friend vhole lot more passed away y, December əfully on Christmas day, December :00 pm at the ler a long illness in Ottawa, da. He was surrounded by the of his family and friends. Jerome he son of Dr. Goytom Petros maptemicahel and Wzo. Letengus olences and erhane Zerom. He leaves behind his sisters Abrehet and Esther and a vast number of friends and relatives around > ne lived, studied and worked in countries: Ethiopia, Mexico, n, Ghana, Spain, the United States Canada. He finished his higher ation at the University of Pamplona n) and Ottawa University ada). Jerome's work experience also extensive and varied. Starting Organization of African Unity, he worked at, Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), the United Nations in New York. Finally, he worked as Court Interpreter and Translator where he was able to use his gifted language skills to help Eritreans,

Starting from his childhood,

Ethiopians, Spanish speakers and graduations, brindays, new jobs, in Ottawa, Ca others.

Jerome was le de le a good friend tre me hale the ability to Jerome was a organizer in the Eritrean include a right of the arrange of the control of the co movement from the early,70 sqcmber 25 betregrounds ridered lines. His integrity assion a Europe, the United States was remarked and states and states and states and states and states are states and states and states are s and Canada. He was have teven of holis family ovative appropriaches to resolving he sving he respected leader of the Eritrean challenges made people seek his ept on giving Community in Ottawa examala was the son differ and rost of the son will for the son will be son will for the son will son will for the son will be son was always ready to lend a helping and Wzo. Jerome Goytom was a mandotherished hand to those near and farithis He leaves the world hise rester, knowledgeable constant compassion and generosity for heaner concerned in His passions were an analysis of the inspired a family, friends and straingers flowed relatives using ward the another whom with an open and loving heart. The dearly missed by all those whose lives endless gifts that he kept on giving throughout his life (at all times) will worked in many countries:

for ever be remembered, honored and dearly missed by all those whose lives endless gifts that he kept on giving the had toltened, befriended, and enjoyed their throughout his life (at all times) will worked in many countries:

for success and forever be remembered, honored dearly missed by all those whose lives enjoyed their throughout his life (at all times) will worked in many countries:

for success and cherished.

the United States and Canada. He finished their goals. Ye

He inspired and higher colucation private funeral service will be held. he was many young people warmlona (Spain) and Ottawa University mentored, encouraging the deducation and development. He enjoyed their company, urging them to reach for success and rise to their full potential with a firm belief that they could achieve their goals. Young people felt that no matter what, he was always there through their struggles and their accomplishments. He never missed key milestones in their lives such as Jerome's wor and varied. S African Unity International the United N he worked as Translator wh gifted languas Ethiopians, S

Eritrean inde early 70's in I America and respected lead

Jerome was a hand to those struggles and

The wake will take place from Tuesday, missed December 27, 2016, to Thursday,h as gradu December 29, 2016, between 4:00 pm otions, of 11:00 pm at the Cody Co-op Housing Community Center (3099 Uplar....

Unit #47, Ottawa, Canada).

For those wishing, online condolences and tributes can be made at www.kellyfh.ca.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A memorial service to celebrate and remember Jerome's life will be held in late January 2017.

The date and location of the memorial service will be posted on this web-site (http:// kellyfhsomerset.sharingmemories.ca/site/JeromeGoytom.html?s=40) once confirmed.