

Eritrea People of Many Faces

Adulait Relics- Ottoman Imprint- Roman Eritrea- Modern Eritrea

Eritrean Danakil the coastal desert stretches some 500 km from Massawa to Asab, and beyond to the border with Djibouti, sparsely populated, topographically varied, low sandy hills, crust of salt and mud lands surrounded by mountains never fails to impress with its stark beauty.

Danakil is the harshest of landscapes, and proud inhabitants the Afar:

Five to ten days tour in Eri-

Gash Barka home to the Great Elephants of Eritrea you will see great mountain ranges, vast alluvial plains and riverbeds. Two of the country's great rivers Gash and Barka. Agro-Industry Economic sector of Eritrea.

Northern & Southern Red Sea with a History dating back thousands of years. Shafi Mosque built 615 AD. The tomb of the Prophet "Akasha" at Gerradu North west of Badda.

Ancient important trading point to Greeks and Egypt. An important Turkish outlet for trade in pear, hides and fish. white crystal beaches, blue sky land of the Sun...

Southern Eritrea Marvel of Historical and Archeological Sites with the oldest Christian monastery dating back to the fifth Century. Kohaito archeological sites of "Queen Of Sheba dam". City of Senafe derived from "Sanafe" "Where is Sana?" In Arabic.

Eritrea's country sides are enormously varied, encompassing the coastal plains of the Red Sea, the Danakil Desert, the highland plateau and the mountains of Northern Sahel. Every bit as different and as interesting- are the great plains that stretch from the foot of the Eritrean highlands all the way to the border of Sudan. Southern Eritrea is Marvel of Historic and Archeological Sites; Kohaito, Metera, Ham-Debre Libanos which encompasses 400 -500 BC historical Relics.

Eritrean American Community Association In Eritrea

Phone: 291-1-120886

Email: naeca2004@yahoo.com

Cruise on the Dessie Island retreats famous for their beautiful phosphors tree and beaches. The mid-sized and most enjoyable Island.

There you can enjoy a swim among the local inhabitants the Afar.

Its beaches, bays and inlets are noted for their beauty.

Eritrea is a young yet old nation with a long history of civilization and significant contributor to the entirety of human civilization. The legacy of the past survives in the Eritrean people of the Present; nine ethnic groups versatile tradition and culture for most part still preserved. With relics from the Adulait Kingdom, One of the most magnificent city state of Roman Empire with its World Heritage Art Deco buildings. Ottoman Turkish architectural styles Eritrea is a country laden with History.

Eritrean American Community Association

Business Hours

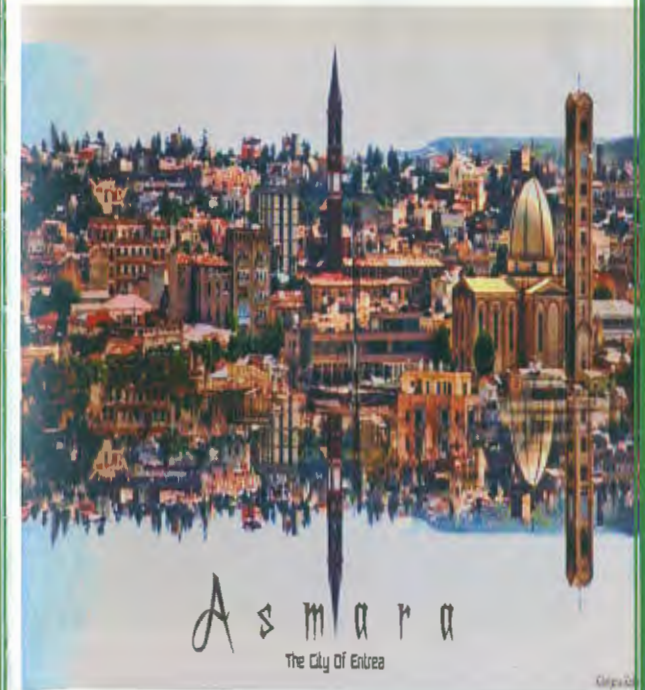

Monday to Friday 8:00 am to 6:00 pm
Saturday 8:00 am to 12:00 noon
Sunday Closed

Office location
St 194-04 Asmara
P.O.Box -10729

Phone: 291-1-120886
Email: naeca2004@yahoo.com

Eritrean American
Community Association
In
Eritrea

Know Where To Go
In
Eritrea

{ Tel: 291-1-200886 }