A Brief Life History of Haile Abraha

Haile Abraham, a great father, uncle and friend, and one of the most active and passionate members of the Eritrean community in the Metro DC area passed away at Mount Vernon Hospital in Alexandria, VA on Wednesday, May 4th, 2016. He was 64.

Haile was born in Asmara, Eritrea in 1951 to his beloved late parents Abraha Woldemichael and Ezgiharia Kifleyesus. He spent his early years in Mendefera, Eritrea with lots of love and strong family values. Haile and his family then moved to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia where he continued his schooling at the Medhaniealem School. Later he got an opportunity to immigrate to the United States in September of 1971.

Once in the USA, Haile initially settled in the Washington, DC metropolitan area, he then switched coasts and moved to the Los Angeles area where he did his college education at Santa Monica College. In addition he managed to acquire various technical certifications that enabled him to work as an IT engineering professional. Haile came back to the Metro Washington D.C area in the early 1990's and was an active member of the Eritrean community until his passing. Haile was also one of the early members of the Dehai Eritrean Online Network where he contributed many articles and he was one of the Dehai Retreat Organizers.

People liked Haile's straight forward, no nonsense approach. He spoke loud, clear and with a very determined conviction. This behavior came in handy, as he was one of the strongest defenders of the Eritrean national cause for justice until his last breath. He was always in the front row of Dehai network in the defense of the Eritrean cause replying to every biased report.

Haile had a passion for life; he was involved in promoting Eritrean music, and film. His critical reviews of music and movies are testament to his appreciation and passion of art. Haile also enjoyed sports, especially basketball. He was a loyal Los Angeles Lakers and Washington Redskins fan, but he was also into International Football (soccer) like EPL & La Liga. Haile helped organize the Eritrean youth basketball tournament during the Washington DC Eritrean festivals starting in the early 1990's. He has managed to transfer his passion to his son Matthew Haile Abraha.

If there was one thing that Haile loved more than life itself, it was his son Matthew. Haile always treated Matthew as his best friend. God wanted Haile to come home earlier than anticipated where he will join his parents in heaven.

Haile is survived by his son Matthew, siblings Berhane and Mihret, nephew Dawit, nieces Hanna and Delina as well as his many friends and relatives. Rest in Peace.
