

June: In Memory of our Martyrs !

Considering June: Yes, we were once,

Unfairly federated and denied, but now justice earned and liberated

Affiliated and subordinated, but now distinguished and represented

Alienated and subjugated, but now recognized and accepted

Depended and subjected, but now self-relied and contended

Humiliated and invaded, but now recuperated and defended

Dimmed and rejected, but now recognized and highlighted

Impartial Rule of Law denied, but now legally vindicated

Religion and region divided, but now ironic and united

No war – no peace frustrated, but now deterred and reversed

Entrenched and arm twisted, but now experienced and respected

Humbled and introverted, but now assertive and extroverted

Suited and exploited, but now talented and elevated

Character assassinated, but now praised and selected

Down casted and dejected, but now viably self – asserted

Used and manipulated, but now learned and goal directed

Diplomatically isolated and sanctioned, but now self actualized and elated

Blackmailed and threatened, but now highly acknowledged and respected

Internationally disdained and neglected, but now self relied and appreciated

Yes, that is June, what sacrifice is all about !

Eternal Glory to our Martyrs !
