

In Loving Memory of
Yonathan Fitwi
1982-2010

Yonathan Fitwi was born on April 17, 1982 in Port Sudan to his father Fetwi (Samson) Tesfai G/Mariam and his mother Abeba Teklu Kidane. Like many other families, in 1991, Yonathan and his family migrated to New York City for a better life. After five years of living in NY, in 1996 they moved to their new and current home Atlanta GA. Anyone can give up it's the easiest thing to do in this world. But to hold it together despite of overwhelming obstacles, is the sign of true strength. Yonathan Fitwi was unique in nature, by far one of the bravest people we know. If you had the pleasure of knowing Yonathan you knew of his big heart. He was a giver, who always gave good wishes to others and enabled them to move forward regardless of their challenges. He was a loyal friend, the kind that always lent a shoulder to cry on, and always there to ease one's mind with his kind words.

On November 27, 2010, Yonathan Fitwi passed away leaving behind his loving family, especially a brother (Merhawi Fitwi) who he loved dearly. His death has left us with a heartache nothing can heal, but he has left us with loving memories no one can still. Even though he was passing by briefly in this life, he will forever remain in our hearts. Yonathan was not only a wonderful son to his parents, but also an amazing brother to Merhawi. He was always full of life and warm at heart, and for that reason, we will all miss him so much.

While we are mourning the loss of our son, we would like to take the time to ask you to keep him in your prayers. Yonathan comes from a single parent home. His mother, Abeba, is unemployed and is not financially capable of arranging her beloved son's funeral. It is Abeba's wish that she may return her son to their homeland, Eritrea, and bury him where he desired. Please grant her wish, and help her by making a donation to Yonathan's cause. We are asking for your support in donations to help his family through this tough and sad time.
