

Seminar on Collaboration & Employment Opportunities in Eritrea

Dear Sir/Madam,

You are cordially invited to a seminar organised by the Eritrean Professionals Network (EriPN) - UK to be held at UCL on 14 January 2012.

The objectives of the seminar are to:

- Highlight the current acute shortage of skilled human resources in Eritrea and role of EriPN.
- Discuss the possibility of Eritreans and friends of Eritrea residing in the UK and elsewhere to participate in the on-going national reconstruction efforts.
- Explore employment opportunities in various economic and social development programmes, including research & development, engineering, agriculture and healthcare sectors etc.
- Present the possibility of sponsored research opportunities for graduates/post graduate students and researchers in long/short term projects targeted at Eritrean development needs.
- Explore business collaboration and partnership avenues with private and/or governmental sectors in industry as well as educational institutions.
- Involve more Eritrean professionals in EriPN activities both in the UK and in Eritrea for self & community development.

The seminar will start by a key note speech laying the foundation for discussions on the above listed objectives which will be presented by EriPN members who have recently visited Eritrea.

- There will also be a presentation on Job opportunity at the UN by Dr T. Ghebray, former FAO country rep.

Date: 14 Jan 2011
