MARTYRS' DAY 2012, in SAN JOSE, CA

Residents of San Jose and environs, California commemorated this year's Martyrs Day with great pride and enthusiasm, in a candle light vigil, honoring their martyrs and their cause, guaranteeing continuity and perseverance to the national cause. The evening started with a one minute silence in memory of the thousands of Martyrs who gave their precious lives in defending Eritrea and its people. After the messages for the day and poems was read in favor of Martyrdom, and Martyrs related music was played while sharing the traditional food and beverages, prepared by nationalist Eritrean women, the candle vigil light was honored and resident made a walking ceremony lighting the candles. The program ended after honoring a minute of silence, once again, on the behalf of the thousands of selfless Martyrs who handed us the gift of Independent Eritrea.

Eternal Glory to our Martyrs !
