IN MEMORY OF MR. TESFATSION TEWOLDEMEDHIN

Mr. Tesfatsion Tewoldemedhin was born in Adi NeAmen, Logo Anseba, Eritrea in 1948 from his father Mr. Tewoldemedhin Tedla and his mother Wzro. Sara Andemariam.

Mr. Tesfatsion relocated from the countryside to Asmara for education opportunities. While he lived in Asmara his uncle Mr. Tesfay Tedla raised him and took care of all his needs. He completed his high school in Asmara and then got his first degree from the University of Asmara.

Mr. Tesfatsion stood up for what he believed and worked with compassion to the end to make it happen. Due to the atrocities commited by the colonial rulers in Eritrea he had to migrate to Sudan, to Saudi Arabia and finally to the United States in 1980. He worked tirelessly day and night for many years to find the right home to his family. Finally, with God's help he managed to bring all his family to Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. Tesfatsion was very family oriented, loving, kind, and generous. He was always ready to help his community and his country.

Mr. Tesfatsion raised his children with love, care and Eritrean cultural values. He was a man that made sure his family was taken care of.

Since 2005 Tesfatsion was living with the consequences of stroke that affected his health. While he was in the nursing home for the last seven years his wife Ms. Weyne Negusie, his children, Henok Tesfatsion, Fenan Tesfatsion, Salem Tesfatsion and his friends were on his bedside at all times. After all this care and love Mr. Tesfatsion passed away on the 2nd of August, 2012. The Funeral service will be held on Tuesday August 14, 2012 in his country of origin Eritrea.

May God rest his soul in peace!

IN MEMORY OF

TESFATSION TEWOLDEMEDHIN TEDLA
