IN LOVING MEMORY OF HAILE GHEBREMICHAEL BERHANE

Haile G. Micael Brhane was born in Geza Lamza/Debarwa to the proud parents of Ato Ghebremichael Brhane from Adi Raesi and his mother Weizero Belainesh Berhe from Geza-Lamza/Debarwa. on March 8, 1954.

Haile grew up in Asmara where he attended elementary school at Camboni and completed high school at Luel Mekonnen. After graduating from high school, Haile went to work at the Electric Power Company in Massawa. During the Eritrean struggle for independence, Haile like many other young Eritreans fled to Sudan then went to Saudi Arabia to work.

While in Saudia Arabia, Haile met his sweetheart Nigisti Hadera whom he married. After his first son Thomas was born in 1988, Haile along with his family immigrated to the United States and settled in the Washington DC area.

Haile was a very hard worker. Along with being a devoted husband, Haile raised 4 children: Thomas, Aida, Nahom, and Adam. He knew what it took to raise a family in America and worked two jobs in order to support them. In addition to driving a TAXI, he was a well known videographer for all occasions including weddings and graduations. As well, he served his country by taking videos at Eritrean national celebrations in Bologna, Italy and the United States. He was well known for his quality of work and received superb admiration from his clients.

Haile was a family man. He believed in the quality of life and always advised friends and family members to enjoy life to the fullest. He taught his children the importance of family by taking them to family gatherings and events, as well as trips back home. He was a very kind and thoughtful man, making him very much liked by those in the community.

Haile suffered a lung illness, requiring transplantation in 2004. He struggled for eight years, but with the support of his family, friends, and his community, Haile was able to maintain a positive outlook on life. During this illness, he maintained his strong belief in God and his church. He used these strong beliefs to provide comfort to his wife, children, family and friends.

Haile parted this world peacefully on Sunday August 26, 2012 in the comfort of his own home surrounded by his loved ones. Haile is survived by his wife Nigisti; his children: Thomas, Aida, Nahom, and Adam; his father Ghebremichael Brhane; his siblings Michael, Gabriel, Freweini, Tsegereda and Daniel. Even though Haile may no longer be with us physically, he has left us with unforgettable memories and pictures of his life for us to cherish. May God bless his soul.
