

Seattle Calling

“Hji'wn MeKete”!

Date: Sunday, September 30th, 2012

Time: 3 PM. Please be there on time!

Place: Eritrean Association Center
1954 S Massachusetts Street, Seattle

All Eritreans are invited to an important seminar to be given by Mr. Issayas T Mariam, an Eritrean historian and researcher who is currently the head of the Microfilming Department at the Hoover Institution Archives at Stanford University.

Please spread the word and invite as many people as you can to hear our guest speaker discuss the history of Alexander Pushkin, its relevance and significance to Eritrean history. He will also explain the importance of “Soft” or “Smart” power and how we may use it to our advantage, and much much more. Plenty of time has been allocated for relevant question and answer session; and, as always, all constructive comments are welcome and encouraged
