

Eritrean Flag Raising Event, Santa Clara County

(The same County Building where San Jose's referendum took place, 25 years ago)

Eritreans in San Jose and environs will honor their 27th Independence, this Thursday, May 24, 2018, in front of the same building that we took part, the historical referendum of Eritrea before it became a sovereign nation to officially become a United Nations member. Although our flag has been raised in San Jose's City Hall, every year, this time as well, Eritreans in South Bay area will honor the flag on County level, the day of Independence, May 24.

Let us join ECCDC (Eritrean Community Cultural & Development Center) of San Jose in this monumental event of history & identity.

Date: Thursday, May 24, 2018

Address: 70 West Hedding St.
San Jose, CA 95110

Time: 4:30 PM – 7:00 PM

Note:

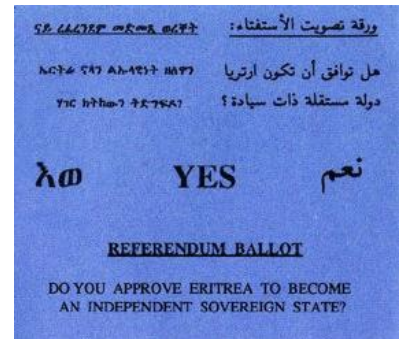

The following day, Friday, May 25, 2018, the Senate of the State of California will recognize Eritrean Independence Day of May 24, 1991, in Sacramento, CA.

On Sunday, May 27, Eritreans of San Jose and environs will celebrate the 27th Independence on 958 Homestead Rd, Santa Clara, CA 95050 @ 7:00 PM.
