“For one brief shining moment, it looked as if a ghost appeared on line and wrote a paper on Eritrea under the following title: “Eritrea's Capital Is Lovely. But Scratch the Surface and You'll Find a Terrifying Reality by: Tamara Barraz ,as if it was going to hold the country accountable for these gross Human Rights violation. But those hopes were in vain when the progressives like this ghost like lady of human rights Global Agenda cannot present any evidence based on substantiated truth not fabrications of deceit”.

Executive Summary

Eritrea is a single party presidential social democratic country. It has been criticized by progressive enemies such that: Eritrea has no constitution, no parliament, while in reality, the Eritrean Government has completed five Legal Code drafting translated the laws into Tigrinya and Arabic. These are series of “Basic Laws” that enumerate fundamental rights and obligations to its citizens in addition to the certain fundamental laws, orders, and regulations that were legally in place or in existence when a need arises to the level of a “state of emergency”. This state of emergency the author refereeing to is: when an invasion of our sovereign country by neighboring enemy countries or even by the Regional States of Ethiopia attempted. This law has been in effect since 1991 under the Basic Laws called Customary Laws and (Highi-Endaba Laws.). But, this reality is often criticized or undermined by enemies often they said it loudly that Eritrea has no laws or constitution as well as opportunists who strictly fallow the progressive ideology such as the source of this writing which is hinted in covertly done at (“Haaretz.com”).

This writing is completely bias or most of its writing is full of lies. It was written in a slanted way to black mail Eritrea on Human Rights violation the old rhetoric chosen by the progressives like this lady for the human rights Global Agenda. It is already a biased article due to the very first sentence with quotes that says: “North Korea of Africa”. This is an already incredibly a biased article designed to slander the Nation of Eritrea and its people with no beneficiary insights at all.

This person in the very first seconds of her paragraph she immediately writes that she is expressing her desire for: sex parties, drugs and gay escorts for Eritreans to engage in the city of Asmara. The writer is following the typical Progressive Pro-LGBTQ ideology for the Nation of Eritrea and which would cause a massive HIV/AIDS outbreak as the result of the writers desire for Eritreans to have sex parties with drugs. The writer is indeed spreading false allegations when she says that: “inmates undergo torture in the Karsheli prison in which she didn’t personally witness. She supposedly, heard this from some unknown refugees that she claims are in exile.

While we ourselves do not know with certainty that Ms. Tamara ever left Israel and actually went to Eritrea because we don’t even know Ms. Tamara Baraaz even exists in real life. Because she has never disclosed her personal information to the Eritrean Government that could verify her existence with the proper photo identification that publically identifies her with all necessary contact information for us to even begin to take this writing as credible.

Again, the writer acknowledges that she never saw prisoners thrown into Shipping Containers that sparked the waves of departure of Eritreans to go primarily to Europe to live and work. I have no idea why the writer so surprised that there was such a large spark of waves of departure from Eritrea, when it is the writer’s own progressive ideology and agenda that caused it in the first place. By making sure that those European countries would guarantee specifically for Eritreans immediate and automatic asylum. It was their goal of properly removing all Eritrean youths out of the country so that no one would be left physically able to defend the Nation of Eritrea. While, at the same time it would make it very easy for neighboring African Countries to easily invade and takeover the territorial land of Eritrea which obviously:

Ms. Tamara wants, because it is a part of her Global Progressive Agenda, that most countries have spearheaded and engaging with most notably and recently was the Obama USA Administration(2008-2016) that crusaded the progressive ideology that was meant internationally to bring Eritrea into that Global Human Rights Agenda that would have mandated LGBTQ antisocial behavior so that it would have been proliferating all over the nation of Eritrea.

Ms. Tamara writing indeed confirms something which is called “Childish Imaginations” when she tells us that she magically arrived in Eritrea and that she is so important person that people were already following her and that she made a successful contact with a none existent opposition group called “Eritrean Liberation Democratic Movement” which have never seen by (the General Eritrean Public).

Again when she supposedly spoke to a 20 year old guy named Tesfai he made a comment: “Do you see that building? In the past there was a government office there, and below it was a cellar with prisoners. When the neighbors found out what was going on there, the prison was moved elsewhere and the cellar was rented out”.

In Conclusion

The rest of her writing is such a completely fraudulent stories about Eritrea Dictatorships and how the regime abandons its citizens and it only deteriorated: due to no “Independent media outlets all were shut down”.

By this point you can clearly, see that Ms. Tamara was asleep during this part of her story telling. It also become clear, again when Ms. Tamara making imaginative story up when she claims that her imaginary friend Tesfai says: agents of the regime arrested a group of young people in a bar and the charges were unlawful assembly. According to him, any gathering of more than five people is forbidden in Eritrea, but the law is enforced arbitrarily. The regime doesn’t usually intervene in cases involving family celebrations. “They’re afraid of groups that will conspire to topple the government,” Independent media outlets were shut down, some religious streams were outlawed, In 2017 the government imposed a ban on Muslim girls wearing a veil to school, on teaching religious subjects and on gender-separated classes”. This is what the final surprise of the writer while she is having a day dreaming but after she walk-up from her sleep she may even have said: “This is unfulfilled fantasy”

“Ultimately, public criticism of the government was prohibited. Eritrea grew ever more insular and eventually became one of the world’s major exporters of refugees”.

Thank you Ms. Tamara for your thoughtful and existential view about Eritrea. Your insights might have been helpful if any of these supposes experiences actually existed in real life and obviously they never exist at all.

This writing was giving away by its Childish and Weak writing and thus a legal vetting is completely unnecessary by me since this was so childish in nature to begin with.

It was nice known you Ms. Tamara!
